LA DEVEZE

KIND WORDS

“I cannot recommend this place enough! From meeting Caroline and Andrew back in June 2023 to start planning our wedding to wrapping up over a week ago it has been a fantastic experience.

My wife and I got married at La Deveze in June 2024 we booked the place from Wednesday to Sunday for our families and bridal party...Friday was D-Day with over 90 people attending the wedding. We had the ceremony up on the platform which was beautiful, the canapés by the pool were excellent, our dinner down under the trees in front of the main house was exceptional and finally dessert and dancing in the courtyard. It was the dream day and went off without a hitch.

Our pool party Saturday was brilliant sangria and paella provided again by the LaDevese I could compliment enough and we followed that by a chilled out evening with all our friends and family in the courtyard. From start to finish the LaDevese team were on the ball and so easy to deal with. They really made it a dream for us.” - Liam & Aoife, 2024

ABOUT US

More than ten years ago, we embarked on a journey to breathe life into the crumbling ruins of La Deveze and create a haven for families and friends to savour precious moments together.

Having renovated the venue ourselves from the ground up, La Deveze initially focused on holiday rentals. However, drawing on our extensive experience in London's restaurant and hospitality scene, we have transformed it into a premier wedding venue. Today, La Deveze boasts a dedicated full-time team committed to providing an exceptional experience for every guest.

We also work closely with our daughter-in-law, a seasoned event planner from London, who brings her expertise to craft bespoke weddings for couples seeking an intimate haven in the heart of the South of France.
